Read from the Messages database of a Mac. iMessage and SMS with the same contact are merged in date order. Contacts appear by phone number or email address, as stored in the database; messages from the owner of the device are shown as "Me". In this conversation: +14155550199. The uploaded export holds 2 other conversations. This document covers the conversation shown above, the longest in the file. To get another one, upload the export again and type a name under "Which conversation".

Hi, this is Karen, the landlord. I checked the apartment today. The carpet in the bedroom has a stain, so I will keep $200 from the deposit. The rest will go back to you by Friday.

Aaron, the stain was there when I moved in. It is in the move-in photos I sent you in June. Please return the full deposit.
